

MISOPROSTOL SNAKES & LADDERS

100 – FINISH! Misoprostol now widely and safely used, reducing maternal deaths worldwide.	99	98	97 Campaign group accuses misoprostol researchers of conflicts of interest	96	95	94 Cytotec removed from the market in Germany due to lack of sales for ulcers	93	92	91
81	82	83	84	85	86 Misoprostol use associated with increased uterine rupture rate in RSA	87	88	89	90
80	79	78	77 Misoprostol generics labelled for reproductive health become available	76	75	74	73 Cochrane review shows misoprostol can cause uterine hyperstimulation	72	71
61	62 Uterine ruptures in the US leads to formation of vocal pressure group	63	64	65	66	68	69	70 Study shows misoprostol use reduces abortion mortality
60	59	58	57	56 Bellagio expert group publish guidelines on dosages for reproductive health	55	54	53	52	51
41 Misoprostol.org disseminates guidelines for safe misoprostol dosages	42	43	44	45	46	47	48 BNF advises misoprostol and mifepristone to be used for abortion.	49	50
40	39	38	37 Misoprostol added to WHO essential medicines list	36	35	34	33	32	31
21	22 Fetal anomalies associated with misoprostol in early pregnancy	23	24	25 US charities select misoprostol as key intervention for research funding	26	27	28	29	30
20	19	18	17	16	15 Research shows misoprostol effective for postpartum haemorrhage	14	13 Misoprostol is banned in a Brazilian state due to concerns over illegal abortion	12	11
1 = START! A drug used for the treatment of peptic ulcers is recognised to contract the uterus.	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9 Misoprostol shown to be effective for induced abortion and miscarriage	10